‘America’s Lawyer’ Mike Papantonio Accuses Monsanto Of Lying and Creating False Studies on the Safety of It’s Roundup-Ready Pesticide

Mike Papantonio, known as America’s lawyer on the Ring of Fire radio show, will join 700 other litigants suing Monsanto for the cancer hazard created by its pesticide product, Roundup Ready. Papantonio says the company falsified data and attempted to discredit legitimate research on the dangers of Roundup Ready’s active ingredient, glyphosate. Newly unsealed documents show that Monsanto invented ‘research’ that was attributed to legitimate scientists. Two years ago, the World Health Organization reported a link between glyphosate and non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma, and it said the weed killer was a “probable carcinogen.” In March, the US Department of Agriculture quietly dropped plans to test food for the presence of glyphosate. –GEG

US forces bombed a militia group aligned with Syrian President Assad on Syria’s border with Iraq and Jordan. The US says the militia posed a threat to US-backed coalition forces. U.S. forces bombed a militia aligned with Syrian president Bashar Assad in southern Syria, a Pentagon official confirmed Thursday.

The strike took place in At Tanf near Syria’s border with Jordan and Iraq, the official said. The United States has been using the area to train its partnered local forces.

The U.S.-led coalition fighting the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) said the strike happened Thursday when pro-regime forces advanced in a “de-confliction zone” and posed a threat to coalition-backed forces.

“This was despite #Russian attempts to dissuade pro-regime movement towards At Tanf, #Coalition aircraft show of force, & warning shots,” Operation Inherent Resolve said in a tweet.

Austrian Town Halts Immigration After Asylum Seekers Brutally Rape 15-Year Old Girl

Austria: The mayor of Tulln informed the government that his town will no longer accept ‘asylum seekers’ after a 15-year old girl was brutally raped by two Somali men and another from Afghanistan. Authorities kept the town’s population in the dark about the vicious attack for a month. –GEG

A town in Austria has refused to accept any more “refugees” after three migrants gang-raped a 15-year-old girl.

The young girl was making her way home on the evening of April 25th when she was grabbed and “brutally raped,” according to reports. The suspects are two men from Somali and one Afghan.

The town’s mayor responded to the incident by informing the government that Tulln would not be accepting any more refugees until further notice.

“For me, there is zero tolerance against asylum seekers who abuse their guest countries law. In view of what these criminals have done to the girl, the full severity of the law is required,” said Peter Eisenschenk.
Freedom Party Councillor Christian Hafenecker questioned why authorities did not inform the public about the incident “for almost a month,” putting people’s safety at risk.

“Countless cases already show that the migration of predominantly Muslim men under the cover of the asylum becomes an uncontrollable danger. It is therefore not at all clear why the Tulln’s population was not promptly warned by the police,” he said.

This is by no means the first time that Austria has been subjected to the “cultural enrichment” that newly arrived migrants bring.

An Iraqi refugee who raped a 10-year-old boy at a swimming pool in Vienna later had his conviction overturned because judges found that he believed the child had consented.

Former FBI Chief, Robert Mueller, Appointed by Justice Department to Investigate Trump-Russia Allegations

The US Justice Department appointed former FBI head, Robert Mueller, as special counsel to investigate the allegations that Trump colluded with the Russians to affect the election. Mueller’s investigation will include a grand jury with subpoena power, a federal judge who can issue search warrants, and a large team of FBI agents who can seize evidence. Trump says this the largest witch hunt in US history. –GEG

Was James Comey Caught Committing Perjury?

Former FBI Director, James Comey, told the Senate Judiciary Committee on May 3, 2017, that he was never told to stop an investigation due to political reasons. This is in direct contradiction to his statement last week that President Trump pressured him in February to stop the investigation of Michael T. Flynn. Comey cannot be telling the truth in both of these statements.—GEG

Former FBI Director James Comey said he was never told to stop an investigation due to political reasons during testimony to the Senate Judiciary Committee on May 3, 2017, which contradicts his new claim that Trump pressured him to stop the Flynn investigation in February.

Comey now claims President Trump asked him to to shut down the federal investigation into former national security adviser, Michael T. Flynn, in an Oval Office meeting in February, according to a reported memo Mr. Comey says he wrote after the meeting.

The New York Times claims this February memo is the “smoking gun,” but in fact it contradicts Comey’s sworn testimony on May 3.

During the Senate testimony, Comey confirmed to Sen. Mazie Hirono (D-Hawaii) that in theory, the Attorney General or senior officials at the Department of Justice could stop a FBI investigation.

The former FBI director added it would “be a big deal to tell the FBI to stop doing something that – without an appropriate purpose.”

“But I’m talking about a situation where we were told to stop something for a political reason, that would be a very big deal. It’s not happened in my experience.”

Americans Peacefully Protesting at the Turkish Embassy in Washington DC, Violently Attacked by Turkish Security Guards

Last week, President Trump armed Kurdish fighters in Syria in the fight against ISIS. Turkey, however, is fighting the Kurds inside their country and on their border. While Turkish President Erdogan met with President Trump at the White House, Erdogan’s security detail and body guards crashed a peaceful demonstration at the Turkish Embassy that was organized by Kurdish and Turkish Americans who oppose Turkey’s attacks on Kurdish fighters in Syria. Eleven people were injured and two were arrested. –GEG
Library’s Story Hour for Children Is Hosted by Drag Queens

A Brooklyn library is employing drag queens as story tellers for children. You have to see this to believe it. Pay particular attention to the admiring expressions on the faces of children as they respond to the cross dresser who is hosting the event. Paid for by tax dollars, of course. –GEG

Bill Nye, the Former Science Guy, Is Pushing Sexuality ‘Education’ To Reduce Human Population

Bill Nye, who once hosted a children’s program called The Science Guy, has a new show that is beyond crass in its treatment of human sexuality. It promotes homosexuality and hypersexuality as the norm and advocates the compulsory indoctrination of children to accept this ethic. The admitted goal is to encourage sexual relationships that lead to reduced population. This strategy was originally developed at the bequest of the Rockefeller’s Population Council by Frederick Jaffe, a Vice President of Planned Parenthood. —GEG

California Governor Jerry Brown Calls Taxpayers “Freeloaders” for Objecting to His New Gas Tax And Car Fees

Governor Jerry Brown was in Orange County defending State Assemblyman, Josh Newman, who is facing voter backlash after voting for Brown’s new tax of 12-cents per-gallon on gasoline. Brown’s comment was ironic because California is a... welfare state that houses one-fourth of all illegal aliens living in the US. That is one of the reasons he needs the extra tax revenue. –GEG

California Governor Jerry Brown referred to taxpayers as “freeloaders” last week for objecting to his new gas tax and car fee hikes.

“The freeloaders – I’ve had enough of them ... They have a president that doesn’t tell the truth and they’re following suit,” he said. Brown was speaking in Orange County, defending State Assembly newcomer Josh Newman (D-Fullerton), who is facing a recall effort after voting for Brown’s new transportation taxes in April.

The new tax raises existing gas taxes – already among the highest in the nation – by 12 cents per gallon, with higher taxes on diesel, and slaps car owners with higher annual registration fees. Critics have pointed out that the burden of the tax falls most heavily on middle-class Californians.

The Orange County Register, which covered Brown’s remarks, adds that Brown is sparing no effort to keep Newman in office. “He’ll have whatever he needs,” the Register quotes the governor as saying.

Kira Davis, commenting at RedState, remarks:

The 1,000,000 citizens in Los Angeles county alone who collect food stamps provided by taxpayers are not freeloaders. The millions of illegal immigrants being harbored in California’s sanctuary cities to the cost of taxpayers are not freeloaders. Illegal immigrants being provided “free” legal help by the state on the backs of taxpayers are not freeloaders. The bloodsuckers in the Sacramento legislature who get paid $178 a day in per diem funds on top of their bloated salaries just for walking in the door to their job every day are not freeloaders.
No, you – the burdened, law-abiding taxpayer are the freeloader for simply asking the government of California be more fiscally responsible with the money they already have instead of stealing more of your money without your consent to pay for programs that are already funded but have been raided for pet projects and personal enrichment.

Princeton Professor Says US Intelligence Agencies, Acting as Fourth Branch of Government, Are Sabotaging Peace

After being fired by President Trump, FBI Director, James Comey, produced a memo he had written in February, alleging that Trump told him he hoped the investigation into former National Security Advisor, General Michael Flynn, would be dropped. Comey has implied that Trump obstructed justice. Comey, however, did not notify the Justice Department about... the memo, which, ironically, would make him, also, guilty of obstructing justice. In truth, none of these political players are concerned about justice unless it gives them a political advantage. Professor Steven Cohen, who taught Russian politics at Princeton and NYU, says that the #1 threat against America is the assault on President Trump by US intelligence agencies, which are acting as a fourth branch of government to keep the US embroiled in wars. –GEG
